THE CHESTER SUFFERERS .- Mayor Melton, of Chester, informs us that he has given the donation of Mr. T. S. Hoffmas, of Pennsylvania, to a poor widow lady, with a large and helpless family, who lost everything in the CITY DIRECTORY AND BUSINESS REGISTER. We are glad to learn that Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell have undertaken to publish a complete Charleston City Directory and Business Register. It is a work very much needed, and is now in good hands.

UNITARIAN CHURCH .- At a meeting of the corporation of the Unitarian Church, held Monday evening, May 6th, the following gentlemen were elected for the ecsuing year: Vestrymen-Dr. A. B. Rose, Geo. E. Gibbon, Alva Gage, A. J. Burton, Thos. E. Strother. Wm. McComb, Geo. A. Locke. Wardens-R. E. Brown and Edward Michel.

OUR PRICES CURRENT .- We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS Prices current, issued this morning. Made up with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new type, it forms, with the business card of the house forwarding it, the most attractive and welcome weekly commercial circular that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards, two and a half cents per copy; single copies five cents.

BEAUTIFUL MANTELS.-Lapis Lazulæ and Verd Antique are the colors of marbleized slate, Mantels just received by Mr. P. P. Toale, for the tasty residence of Thos. O'Brien, Esq , on Rutledge street. This style of mantels is highly meritorious, as they can be had in any color, are perfectly durable and of moderate cost. The mantels, together with marble steps and hearth stones, can be seen this week at Mr. Toale's salesrooms, No. 20 Hayne

A PLEASANT DRIVE .- The lovers of a pleasant drive or ride up the road will be glad to learn that Council has made arrangements by which the shell road will be thoroughly watered along its entire length each day during the bat, dry season. Two tanks have been repaired at Peyton's Bridge, and two water caris will be kept constantly on the run. One of them was under full headway yesterday, and all who passed over the road will have occasion to remember how the dust was laid on the half of the road next the city.

CONTEMPT OF COURT,-A few evenings ago, while Judge Graham was h lding the Circuit Court at Orangeburg, Solleitor E. B. Seabrook became so offensive in his language that Judge Graham felt compelled to commit him to jail for contempt of court. He remained in durance for twenty-four hours, we learn, and at the expiration of that time, upon his refusal to purge himself of the contempt, Judge Graham suspended him from the list of attorneys. The appointment yesterday of General Whipper by Judge Lee as solicitor of the Inferior Court, is understood to be a result of Mr. Seabrook's suspension.

SAD CASUALTY IN PENDLETON .- A COTTESunder date of the 7th instant: "The deepest gloom has been cast over our community by the drowning at the factory yesterday afternoon of George W., the oldest son of the gallant Columel John V. Moore, who fell at the second battle of Manassas. George, although but fitteen years of age, gave promise of a brilliant future. His talents were of the first order, and he won all hearts to him by his refined manner and gentlemanly deportment. His whowed mother will have the earnest sympathy of hosts of friends throughout this

AN ATTRACTIVE -EXCUSSION.—The fine steamer Dictator will leave Charleston on the evening of the 21st instant, on a grand excursion to various points of interest in Georgia and Florida. The party will visit Savannah, Fernandina, Jacksonville, Palatka, the St. John's River, St. Augustine, and return to this city on the 26th. The excursion passes through some of the most beautiful country and scenery in the South, and allows the visitor ample time for examining and inspecting several beautiful cities and the historic fortress and other relics of the first settlement on the continent at St. Augustine. The fare for the round trip is reasonable, and under the care of the courteous Captain L. M. Coxetter, a most delightful trip may be counted upon.

GERMAN NEWS .- A sailing vessel, with numerous passengers (emigrants and others) Is expected to leave Bremen about the first of October next for this port, under the charge of that popular and efficient officer, Captain H. Balleer.

The children of the German Sunday School will enjoy their annual picnic at the Schutzenplatz to-day.

At the last meeting of the German Rifle Club it was resolved that the rent for the Schutzenpla'z be fixed at $250 per day when it was wanted for the shooting festivals of other societies. For this amount the lessees have the enjoyment of all the buildings, booths, ten-pin sliers, &c., as well as the State and United States licenses for the grand bar.

CLUBS AND STARS .- Four offenders from the lower Guardhouse appeared before the Mayor yesterday morning, all for being more or less intoxicated on the streets and the natural consequences.

The first man showed that in his hurry to get over a tence on Meeting street he had torn his clothes and fell down in the position in which he was found. He was discharged. The next one said that his favorite engine had won the prize, and in consequence he started to treat generally, hence his condition. He was fined one dollar.

The third, who raised a row in a bar-room on Broad street, near King, said it was all the fault of the whiskey which drove him crazy instead of getting him fuddled. He paid up his dollar. The last one said he had received a sunstroke, and hence his recumbent position on the shrubbery. He went to the House of Correction for ten days. The upper Guardhouse sent down a story about a stray goat which had been locked up there. The goat was ordered to be kept in grad until the owner paid up a fine of one dollar.

MEMORIAL DAY. Arrangements for its Observance at Magnolia To-day.

To-day will be repeated at Magnolia Cemetery the graceful ceremony of adorning with the blossoms of spring the graves of the departed heroes who have there found a resting place. The arrangements made by the Ladies' Memorial Association are such as can hardly tail to secure a fitting and appropriate observance of this cherished anniversary, and no additional words are now needed to induce the people of Charleston to lend their heaftiest co-operation to this end. It will be seen by a notice in another column from what points the collection of floral offerings will be made, and it only remains for our citizens to see that these offerings are de posited at the places indicated during the morning, in sufficient profusion to insure a full and complete expression of the sentiment which prompts this grateful observance. It is as simple and appropriate as possible. For this proposed to make the services at the cemetery purpose more than usual time will be given for the full and careful decoration of all the graves. There will be no address, and the poem to be read will be brief. We need hardly urge that the entire city will share in this touching commemoration of our revered dead. It is all we can do, and if it seem little in itself let it become great, as the spontaneous tribute of our whole people.

THE SACRED CONCERT at St. Mary's Church, last evening, came off according to the programme. We shall notice its merits to mor

THE ENTERPRISE RAILROAD.-Ground was broken yesterday at three points on East Bay, between Adger's wharf and the foot of Market street, and the work of laying the track of the Enterprise Railroad was commenced in earnest. It is understood that the rails are now on their way to this city, and it is promsed that the whole work of laying the track will be completed by the 1st of June.

THE THISH VOLUNTEERS .- A meeting for the purpose of reorganizing this sterling old corps was held last evening, at the Hibernian Hall, by the surviving members of the company and others who wished to join. The meeting was organized by Lieutenant John Burke being called to the chair, and the object having been stated, all who wished to participate in the reorganization were invited to sign their names on a roll. The names of forty-five good men, consisting principally of members of the old Irish Volunteers, were soon signed, after which the meeting adjourned until an early day next week, when a formal reorganization will take place. The name of the "Irish Volunteers" is a household word in Charleston, and the strong esprit de corps which distinguished the company will, doubtless, cause them to reappear once more pefore the public in all their pristine glory.

A DANGEROUS CUSTOMER .- Yesterday afternoon a colored man, with a loaded gun upon his shoulder, marched up to a policeman in Anson street and informed the latter that he had just walked to the city from a plantation nine miles up in the country, where he had killed a man. That he had come down in a hurry to report it at headquarters for fear of being arrested. Clubs and Stars was a little taken aback by this alarming confession, and mildly suggested that they should retire to the Guardhouse. The man with the gun consented, and, on his arrival, had his weapon taken away and himself locked up. He was identified soon after by his brother, who came down in search of him, as James Perry, a harmless fellow, who at times labors under severe attacks of mental aberration. This ast freak shows that Perry has some maliclous ideas in his muddled brain, and should be more closely watched. He is confined on the charge of being insane.

THE COURTS

The United States District Court. This court was opened yesterday morning by Judge Bryan, and the following cases disposed of :

John L. Leonard was fined $200 and John L. Chaplin $300, for violation of the internal reve nue laws.

Fifty-three boxes of manufactured tobacco belonging to Messrs. Nash & Dulin, and 11244 pounds of tobacco, belonging to S. B. Latham, were condemned for violations of the internal revenue laws.

The trial of M. F. Horne, for alleged embez zlement from the mails, was commenced, and the evidence for both sides was taken, after which the court adjourned until this morning, at ten o'clock.

The Inferior Court

was opened at ten o'clock yesterday morning by Judge Lee. Solicitor E. B. Seabrook being absent in Orangeburg, General W. J. Wnipper was appointed solicitor for the court in his stead. The cases against the county commissioners were then called up, and the new sollcltor asked for further time in which to examine into the cases. With the consent of Colonel T. Y. Simons, counsel for the defendants, the trial was fixed for the 15th instant. The court then adjourned until that day. .

this case, it is published in full to-day.

This was an action on a promissory note, dated April 5, 1961, payable one day after date. This case comes to this court on appeal, because of the unjust, erroneous and unwarranted charge of the presiding judge, which led the jury to bring in a vertice contrary to the law and the evidence. I cannot see any reason why a solemn contract with a good and sufficient consideration should be interfered with horsely it was made previous to. fered with because it was made previous to, or during the progress of the late rebeilion, unless it was made with reference to "Contederate States notes or their equivalent.' is not claimed, or attempted to be shown, that the note in question was so made, therefore it was the duty of the jury, according to the law and evidence in this case, to bring in a verdict for the whole amount found to be and.

All persons have rights which all courts of justice will respect. Under our system of jurisprudence, no State has the right to impair the obligation of contracts, much less has a court a right to assume to and destroy, or partially destroy, solemn obligations made be tween citizens.

To permit persons to get rid of paying one half of their just, honest and equitable debts because there has been a rebellion in the State, is no more nor less than offering a premium for such rebellion. It is urged by the respondent that, in order to give this court jurisdiction to review an appeal, a motion for a new trial should have been made to the court below. When an appeal is taken, in due time after judgment is entered by the court below, after judgment is entered by the court below, and it is found, as in this case, such judgment is contrary to the law, a new trial will be
